A Safe Savings Bank

During its more than twenty-three years of existence, the Hyde Park Savings Bank never lost a dollar by a poor note, a poor stock or a poor bond.

This can only mean that its managers possess great conservatism, excellent judgment and painstaking care.

It means a close adherence to the motto of the bank from its start, namely: "Safety first, last and always;" "high rates of interest—never."

Deposits in this bank receive 4 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually, with all the taxes paid by the Bank.

UP AND DOWN VERMONT.

more in keeping with the surroundings. When one considers the great number of people who annually visit the Bromley House at Peru Mountain there seems to be no reason why a similar hotel should not be even more prosperous at Willoughby.

To our minds, Lake Willoughby occupies the same relative degree of prominence in Vermont scenery that Lake Lucerne does in that of Switzerland.

Day's mileage, 54.

By six o'clock we were retracing our way down the shore. Across the lake, the mountain's crest was just beginning to brighten with the first rays of sunlight, while the sheer mountain wall at our left was yet wrapped in the night's dark veil.

Slowly the shadows fled from the opposite mountain before the oncoming dawn. Soon the clear crystal like water sparkled in the brilliant radiance of early morn.

How different nature now seemed after being released from the cold dark grip of night. The squirrels were chirping and the birds singing all along the road. Awakened nature seemed like the rejoicing of a victorious army after a long battle.

Yet, after all, words only blur the grandeur which nature there revealed to us.

The day was advancing and we had to hurry on. Our course led directly north to Derby Line. From East Charleston to Derby Line the road was fine. From Derby to Derby Line is about the best six miles of road in the state.

At Beebe Plains we visited the grave of Zadock Steele, a Vermont, well known because of his capture and escape at the burning of Royalton. One interested in Vermont history would be interested to read his own account of this episode in a little booklet entitled "Captivity and Sufferings of Zadock Steele."

At Beebe Plains we also visited the postoffice which stands on the boundary line between the United States and Canada. Inside are two post office windows, about 10 feet apart, on the same counter; one for Beebe Plains, Vt., and the other for Beebe Plains, P. Q. And it is an actual fact that for a letter to go from one window to the other it must first travel about thirty-three miles by train.

From there we went down to Newport where we had the pleasure of finding Frank C. Partridge of Proctor agreeable to the idea of becoming the third member of our party.

Just outside of Newport is a spectacular view of Lake Memphremagog and the distant mountains. From Newport, we went over to Troy and down the valley to Eden, which was certainly among the foremost of our choicest drives. The scenery is very similar to that in Williamstown Gulf while the road is far superior. The road from Eden to Johnson and Jeffersonville we found very shady, far too much so for comfortable travel.

From Jeffersonville we turned north through Bakersfield to Enosburg Falls, where we stopped for the night. Day's mileage 116.

Robert W. Hertz, Lawrenceville, Mo., who had been bothered with kidney trouble for two years, says: "I tried three different kinds of kidney pills but with no relief. My neighbor told me to use Foley Kidney Pills. I took three bottles of them, and got a permanent cure. I recommend them to everybody." F. D. Pierce.

EVERY VERMONT FARMER

Should Realize that the Republican Party in Vermont Has Endeavored to its utmost to advance the interests of the Agriculturist.

For the past four years the State has had an efficient and painstaking agricultural department whose work will compare favorably with that of any agricultural department in any state in the Union.

The Republican party believes it should enact still further legislation of benefit to the farmers, knowing that prosperity on the farm means prosperity in the shop.

The Republican party at its State Convention adopted a plank in its platform that has the welfare of the farmer at heart, and this plank deserves the attention and consideration of every Vermonter on a farm. In part it reads:

"VERMONT SHOULD SPARE NO EFFORT TO MAKE THE MOST OF HER OPPORTUNITY AS AN AGRICULTURAL STATE. IN EVERY REASONABLE AND PRACTICAL WAY, THE STATE SHOULD ENCOURAGE THE UPLIFT OF AGRICULTURE AT THIS TIME."

With the past record of the Republican party before us and its still further desire to be of assistance to the farmer as expressed in the plank above quoted, the Republican State ticket deserves the vote of every farmer in the State at the September election.
